Mayor makes keynote address at alternative fuels conference

Mayor Cedric Glover delivered the keynote address today at the 2014 Louisiana Alternative Fuels Conference and Expo held at the LSU Lod Cook Alumni Center in Baton Rouge.

In addition to the Mayor's address, attendees at the daylong expo also had the opportunity to hear expert panelists discuss natural gas, propane and electric vehicles and various other innovative technologies.

The city also was in the spotlight this afternoon at the Louisiana Clean Fuels Awards Ceremony when Lt. Governor Jay Dardenne presented the award for municipalities to SporTran Director Gene Eddy. SporTran is one of a few public transit systems nationwide with multiple vehicles powered by compressed natural gas.

Louisiana Clean Fuels is a Department of Energy Clean Cities Coalition and supported by the Louisiana Department of Natural Resources. Its mission is to reduce petroleum use in transportation through the promotion of alternative fuels including CNG, LNG, propane, hybrid and electric vehicles, etc.
