PRESS RELEASE

September 26, 2014

Cowboys and Saints fans invited to tailgate in the District Sunday night

The classic rivalry between the Dallas Cowboys and the New Orleans Saints will take center stage Sunday night in the Red River District when local fans converge under the Texas Street Bridge for a massive tailgating party.

Mayor Cedric Glover, an unabashed Cowboys fan, will be on hand to meet and greet football fans eager to watch the game on the area's largest outdoor screen. This early-season NFL matchup is pivotal for both teams as they jockey for position in their respective divisions.

This free event, sponsored by Inavit Innovations and Fully Stacked, will allow fans to watch the game and enjoy food and drink specials from Red River District tenants Fully Stacked, Fatty Arbuckles and Nicky's Mexican Restaurant. Halftime entertainment will include Cowboys and Saints trivia, games and prizes.

Pre-game festivities begin at 6 p.m. with kickoff slated for 7:30 p.m.
