PRESS RELEASE

July 13, 2015

Mayor Tyler to give six-month update and share strategic plan Tuesday

Mayor Ollie Tyler has wrapped up six months in office and she is ready to share what has been accomplished. As promised, she also will be sharing the strategic plan for the next four years at a press conference on Tuesday.

Mayor Tyler entered the office with a sense of purpose, a clear vision of seeing Shreveport as a thriving city where every citizen is afforded a safe environment, economic opportunity, education and training, and a great quality of life.

“The plan is being executed with a sense of urgency, responsibility and passion to meet the demands of our stakeholders, citizens, businesses, visitors and regional partners,” said Mayor Tyler.

Please find details below about the press conference.

WHEN: Tuesday, July 14
2 p.m.
