Suspect in fatal crash surrenders to authorities

Suspect Kyanta D. Magee

A Shreveport man charged in connection with a crash that claimed the life of an elderly female is now in police custody following his arrest Wednesday afternoon.

Just before 3:30 p.m. on February 24, 2016, 22 year old Kyanta D. Magee was booked into the Shreveport City Jail on Vehicular Homicide charges following his surrender to authorities at the Shreveport City Jail.

Magee faces charges in the wake of an investigation that has revealed he was driving a 2013 Dodge Charger well above the posted speed limit when he lost control of the vehicle and struck the car being driven by 72 year old Jessie Bradberry back on October 6, 2015.

Bradberry later died from her injuries.
