PRESS RELEASE

March 21, 2016

Mayor Tyler to give first year update Tuesday

Mayor Ollie Tyler has completed nearly 15 months in office and she is ready to share what has been accomplished. She will share highlights of her administration's accomplishments for the first year of her four-year term at a press conference on Tuesday.

Mayor Tyler entered the office with a sense of purpose, a clear vision of seeing Shreveport as a thriving city where every citizen is afforded a safe environment, economic opportunity, education and training, and a great quality of life.

"I'm excited about what we've been able to accomplish the first year in office and I'm optimistic about the future of Shreveport," said Mayor Tyler.

Please find details below about the press conference.
