FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Shreveport Police seek suspect in theft of handbags

LaMarcus Daniels

Shreveport Police are seeking to locate and apprehend a local man accused of stealing several items from a local consignment business in east Shreveport nearly two months ago.

Back on March 24, 2016, Shreveport Police patrol officers responded to the "Fancy Pantz and Moore" consignment shop in 6500 block of Line Avenue relative to a theft from a business. Upon the arrival of officers, it was learned a man dressed as a woman arrived in at the business and removed several high end items from the store's shelves.

The suspect was captured on surveillance video committing the theft. As the theft unfolded, the suspect, who has been now been positively identified as 18 year old LaMarcus Daniels of Shreveport, can be observed taking several purses held for sale by the business. Daniels was able to choose his selection of purses and flee business on foot. Daniels, who is wanted on an arrest warrant charging him with Theft of Goods by Shoplifting, remains at large. Persons with any information on the whereabouts of LaMarcus Daniels is asked to contact Crime Stoppers at (318) 673-7373 or visit their website at www.lockemup.org
