City to hold ribbon cutting at Mamie Hicks Community Center

The City of Shreveport will have a ribbon cutting ceremony on Wednesday to celebrate the grand reopening of the Mamie Hicks Community Center.

The $746,912 project included construction of a recreation center with a kitchen, multipurpose room, game room and computer lab. Renovations were also performed on the interior and exterior of the gymnasium and workout/weight room.

The ceremony will be held at 10 a.m. Wednesday, June 1 at the center located at 200 Mayfair Drive.

“We are excited about the renovations at Mamie Hicks Community Center and glad to be able to open again for our citizens,” said Mayor Ollie Tyler.

Funding for the project came from the Shreveport Public Assembly and Recreation (SPAR) 2011 Bond package.
