FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Two suspects jailed in murder of local man

Suspect: Jakarris Harper

Suspect: Donterious Davenport

Two wanted men now sit behind bars following their arrests in connection with the murder of a Shreveport man last week.

Back on July 20, 2016, Shreveport Police patrol officers were called to the 2900 block of Curtis Lane regarding a male victim who was discovered deceased along the roadway. Upon officer's arrival, it was learned the victim, 23 year old Ricardo Anderson had been shot multiple times. It is believed the suspects involved in the shooting fled the scene immediately afterwards, driving off a dark colored sedan.

Since the launch of the investigation, detectives have worked tirelessly in efforts to identify those persons believed responsible for the murder. A result of those efforts led to arrest warrants being procured for two men, who based on evidence and information gathered, were linked to the crime. Jakarris Harper 23, and Donterious Davenport, 18, of Shreveport, have since been arrested for their alleged roles in the murder. Authorities took Davenport into custody following a traffic stop on West 63rd Street near Linwood Avenue Monday afternoon. Jakarris Harper was subsequently arrested by authorities in Center, Texas after he was located at a residence there. Both suspects were wanted on a single count each of Second Degree Murder. Bond for each man has been set at half a million dollars each.
