Shreveport Police investigate department property stolen in vehicle

Shreveport Police Property Crimes detectives are working to identify and apprehend the person or persons responsible for the burglary of a vehicle belonging to an off-duty Shreveport Police officer this weekend.

On August 13, 2016 ( calendar:T2:August 13, 2016 ), Shreveport Police patrol officers responded to the 6300 block of Garden Oaks Drive regarding a reported vehicle burglary. As officers arrived on scene, they discovered the vehicle in question belonged to a Shreveport Police officer. During the crime, the suspects made off with the officer's department issued Remington model 870 12 gauge pump action shotgun along with the officer's department issued 5.56 M16 rifle.

Preliminary information gathered indicates the officer's personal vehicle, a 2002 Dodge pickup truck, was secured prior to the break-in, which occurred some time between Friday evening and Saturday morning. Authorities are seeking to locate the weapons as well as the suspects responsible for committing the crime. Persons with information about the incident should contact Shreveport-Caddo Parish Crime Stoppers at (318) 673-7373 ( tel:(318) 673-7373 ) or www.lockemup.org.
