FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Suspects sought in retail theft

Shreveport Police are seeking to locate two women who were have been linked to a recent theft from a local retail store.

Back on July 21, 2016, Shreveport Police were called to the Scrubs Unlimited located in the 1200 block of Shreveport-Barksdale Highway. On officer's arrival, contact was made with the complainant who advised two women had entered the store, with one of the women stealing items and leaving the business.

In surveillance video provided by the business, <https://youtu.be/jzKnCgSD9lc> the suspects can be seen committing the act. While one woman takes merchandise, the other serves as a lookout. Both are seen leaving the business and drove off in a red colored 2002 GMC Yukon SUV. Authorities are hopeful the release of the video will assist in the identification and arrest of those persons responsible for the crime. Anyone with information about this crime is asked to contact Crime Stoppers at (318) 673-7373 or visit their website at www.lockemup.org.
