Trio of suspects jailed; weapons seized in armed person call

Suspects: Isaiah Martin

Quontavious J. Taylor

LaGregory Burns

Three men are currently behind bars and a number of guns are off the Streets of Shreveport following an armed person call Monday evening.

Shortly after 4:30 p.m on October 17, 2016, Shreveport Police patrol officers responded to the 1100 block of Allen Avenue relative to receiving reports that several males were loitering nearby and were armed with hand guns. As officers arrived at the location, they attempted to contact four males described by witnesses, as brandishing firearms. Upon contact with the group, one of the subjects fled from officers on foot, eluding capture, but not before discarding a firearm that was later found to be stolen.

Three other males present with the fleeing suspect were immediately detained at the scene without incident. Authorities recovered three concealed weapons from the persons of the three detained men, bringing the total of seized firearms to five in all. Police believe they have determined the identity of the man who fled from officers, and are in the process of procuring a warrant for his arrest. Jailed for their alleged roles in the matter were 17 year olds La'Gregory J. Burns, Isaiah J. Martin, and 18 year old Quontavious J. Taylor, all of Shreveport. Each man faces a single count of Illegal Carrying of Weapons. Following their arrest, the men were booked into the Shreveport City Jail.
