PRESS RELEASE

November 28, 2015

Mayor Ollie Tyler set to name new Police Chief Tuesday

Mayor Ollie Tyler will name the next police chief of the Shreveport Police Department at a press conference at 1:30 p.m. Tuesday in her conference room at Government Plaza.

“My selection for Police Chief possesses the ability to move the department forward in a positive direction and secure its future success,” said Mayor Tyler. “This appointment is of critical importance in ensuring the safety and well-being of our citizens and visitors.”

Tyler named seven candidates as finalists earlier this month. They included Alan Crump, Janice Dailey, Rodney Horton, Darwin Jones, Greg Jones, Benjamin Raymond, and Wayne Smith.

There were 19 candidates who applied for the position. All met the requirements of the Municipal Fire and Police Civil Service Board to qualify for Police Chief. Mayor Tyler conducted an initial screening with all 19 applicants. From those screenings she identified the finalists for the position. Each finalist had a thorough interview.
