FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Local man charged in hit and run accident

Shreveport Police have charged a local man in connection with a hit and run accident that in occurred in late December.

On December 29, 2016, Shreveport Police patrol officers were called to the intersection of Linwood Avenue at West 72nd Street regarding a pedestrian who had been struck by a car which fled the scene following the accident.

When officers arrived at the scene, it was learned the victim, an adult female, was exiting a Sportran bus and was attempting to cross the street when a white Chevrolet Caprice sedan, traveling along Linwood Avenue, struck the woman, sending her through the air. Fortunately the woman's injuries were not considered life-threatening; however, the driver of the car did not stick around to render aid. Authorities with the Shreveport Police Department's Crash investigations were able to recover an image of the suspect's vehicle. Authorities have since been able to locate the driver of the suspect vehicle, identified as 17 year old Brian Williams of the 6900 block of West Cant Boulevard in Shreveport. Williams was charged with a single count of hit and run driving.
