Wanted suspect linked to additional crimes

Suspect LeeDarius D. Rogers

Shreveport Police detectives are continuing their efforts to locate a wanted suspect, who has now been linked to additional criminal activity in Shreveport.

LeeDarius D. Rogers, 23, of the 700 block of Browning Street, was originally listed as a suspect for his alleged role in the February 3rd armed robbery of a local liquor store. Since that time, investigators have uncovered information leading them to name Rogers in a second armed robbery, this time, a local eatery.

Shreveport Police Robbery detectives, after gathering information and evidence into the February 3rd armed robbery of the Waffle House in the 9200 block of Mansfield Road, applied for and procured yet another warrant for the arrest of Rogers. Rogers is now facing an additional charge of Armed Robbery and Armed Robbery with a Firearm. Bond in the matter has been set at $175,000.00. Rogers remains outstanding at this time; however authorities have reason to believe he is still hiding out in the Shreveport area. Anyone with information on the whereabouts of LeeDarius D. Rogers is asked to call Crimestoppers at (318) 673-7373 or visit their website at: www.lockemup.org
