Police seek suspect responsible for armed robbery of local hotel

Shreveport Police detectives are searching for a man who robbed a local hotel Friday morning.

Just before6:00 a.m. on March 10, 2017, Shreveport Police patrol officers were called to the Chateau Suites Hotel located in the 200 block of Lake Street relative to an armed robbery of the business.
Upon officer's arrival at the business, information was gathered indicating a man walked into the lobby of the hotel wearing a jacket. The man reportedly walked over to the front desk clerk and brandished a firearm and demanded money. The clerk complied with the robber's demands and handed over money from the register.

The bandit, after making off with an undisclosed amount of cash, fled the business on foot traveling westbound of Lake Street. The man was described as a light skinned, black male who stood approximately six feet tall with a medium build. The robber was also wearing a black and gold colored jacket, black pants and a black hat. Police are seeking leads in the investigation and are asking anyone with information to contact Crimestoppers at (318) 673-7373 or visit their website at www.lockemup.org
