FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Habitual offender faces more charges

Suspect Morris Edwards

Shreveport Police investigators have yet again arrested a repeat offender accused in a series of local business break-ins over a two month period.

Back on February 2, 2017, two local business reported being broken into after a suspect entered the businesses in similar fashion by using a blunt object to break out storefront glass. Superior Bar and Grill in the 6100 block of Line Avenue, along with Brewniverse beverage store located in the 800 block of Pierremont Road, were the targeted businesses of the bandit, who was captured on surveillance video .

Based on video evidence secured in another Shreveport business burglary, authorities were able to determine the suspect in the aforementioned burglaries was 38 year old Morris Edwards of Shreveport. Edwards, no stranger to repeat run-ins with the law, has been arrested at least 25 times, with six of those arrests for burglaries. Investigators have now linked Morris with both burglaries, charging him with two counts of simple burglary.
