FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Man jailed; charged in April homicide

Suspect Terrell O. Lucky

A Shreveport man lands behind bars Monday afternoon following his arrest by Shreveport Police officers early Monday morning.

Just after 6:30 a.m. on May 8, 2017, members of the Shreveport Police Department's Violent Crimes Unit, patrol officers and Office of Special Investigations agents arrived at a residence located in the 3700 block of Mayfield Street in order to execute a search warrant procured for a man accused in fatal shooting.

Terrell O. Lucky's luck ran out Monday morning after authorities located him inside the Mayfield Street home. Officers took Lucky into police custody without incident, later transporting him to Shreveport Police headquarters for interviews with detectives. Lucky is accused of gunning down 23 year old Carlos Taylor back on April 11, 2017 as he stood in the parking lot of a west Shreveport convenience store located in the 3700 block of Hollywood Avenue. Portions of the crime were captured on video surveillance, which authorities credit with developing additional evidence in the shooting. Following subsequent interviews with detectives, Lucky was transported to the Shreveport City Jail, where he faces a charge of Second Degree Murder. Investigators are still working the case and asking anyone with information about the shooting to contact Crimestoppers at (318) 673-7373 or visit their website at www.lockemup.org
