FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Man arrested following domestic dispute

Suspect Deandre Williams

A Shreveport man has been arrested following what began as a domestic dispute in south Shreveport this afternoon.

Just before 3:30 pm on June 20, 2017 Shreveport Police patrol officers responded to reports of an armed person in the 9200 block of Dawn Ridge Drive in south Shreveport. Once on scene officers learned that a female was being held inside of a residence against her will. Officers were able to secure the residence and make telephone contact with the suspect, 30 year old Deandre Williams. Williams exited the residence as ordered by police and was taken into custody without incident.

Through their investigation, officers learned that Williams and the victim were involved in a domestic argument. Williams allegedly pulled the female victim inside of the residence and refused to allow her to leave. Williams was charged with False Imprisonment and booked into the Shreveport City Jail.
